

PRAYING LIGHT INTO EAST ASIA

Sunday, January 1

Lift up workers as they interact with students and professors on college campuses throughout China. Pray that they will build strong relationships and have many opportunities to share Christ.

Monday, January 2

Pray for workers in China as they regularly visit Muslim villages to build relationships, provide preventative health care and share the gospel.

Tuesday, January 3

Lift up workers who are nearly finished with language study and are considering possible sites for future ministry. Ask God to give wisdom and guidance as they visit potential ministry locations.

Wednesday, January 4

Pray for workers who are starting a computer software/web consultation business in China. Pray for more clients, and ask that this business would impact the community as well as provide jobs for local university students!

Thursday, January 5

Praise God for a Japanese believer who is bold in sharing his faith with family and friends! Work at his family's restaurant is keeping him from attending regular church services on Sundays—ask God to make a way for him to worship and fellowship, and pray that his family will come to know Christ.

Friday, January 6

Ask God to guide one missionary team as they pioneer a ministry in a remote area of northwestern China to an unreached minority people group, most of whom are farmers. Pray that seeds of the gospel will grow in these people!

Saturday, January 7

Pray for workers in Japan as they share the love of Christ with Japanese women through cooking classes and Bible studies. Ask God to bring these ladies to Himself.

Sunday, January 8

Pray a Filipino lady who has rheumatic heart disease and urgently needs heart surgery. Praise God for beginning to provide for the cost of this surgery and ask Him for the full amount needed. Pray that though this, Nancy's physical heart will be healed and her spiritual heart will be opened to the gospel.

Monday, January 9

Ask God to give workers wisdom in establishing a mobilization center for Filipino missionaries, and ask Him to provide an executive director and founding board.

Tuesday, January 10

Ask God to strengthen churches among the Maranao people in the Philippines. Pray for Filipino leadership as they evaluate their ministries and teach evangelistic Bible studies.

Wednesday, January 11

Pray for complete healing of a worker's broken arm and ask that she will be able to return to ministry in the Philippines this month as planned.

Thursday, January 12

Ask God to continue to work in incredible ways as a result of the many Christmas outreaches that were held for men, women, children and English students in Japan last month. Pray for our workers as they follow up with those who attended.

Friday, January 13

Ask God to guide a missionary couple as they seek His direction for their next term on the field. Pray that the Lord will use them to help plant churches in Japan, however He calls them.

Saturday, January 14

Lift up the ministry of Life Resources Foundation (LRF), which prepares Filipino believers for ministry in Muslim communities. Praise God that teams of LRF graduates have earned the trust of several communities and ask God to protect those ministering in areas fraught with unrest.

Sunday, January 15

Praise God for raising up Indonesians with a heart to reach Hindus in their own country! Pray that they, along with our workers in Indonesia, will be unified and that God will use them to bring many to salvation.

Monday, January 16

Ask God to give grace and strength to the couple who oversee ministry in East Asia. Lift them up as they travel frequently and have many responsibilities.

PRAYING LIGHT INTO ASIA MINOR AND THE BALKAN PENINSULA

Tuesday, January 17

Lift up the Roma, a nomadic, primarily Muslim people. Ask God to guide our workers as they share the gospel among the Roma, and pray that He will work in the hearts of these people.

Wednesday, January 18

Pray for many cups tea and coffee! Sharing with friends over these beverages is an integral part of many Eastern cultures—pray for good opportunities for our workers to share truth through these interactions.

Thursday, January 19

Lift up the moms and toddlers group that meets each week in a church in Albania. Thank God that those who attend are showing increased interest in spiritual matters, and pray for the salvation and spiritual growth of each woman.

Friday, January 20

Lift up the ministry of the GDQ International Christian School in Albania, which provides education for missionary kids. Ask God to provide the additional staff needed for the coming year.

Saturday, January 21

Pray for a new believer in Turkey who was recently baptized but has faced opposition from her family. She felt forced to leave her home and the church. Ask the Lord to give her the grace to stand strong in her new faith.

Sunday, January 22

Ask the Lord to bless the efforts of a new worker as she partners with her church to offer meals, cleaning and nursing assistance to the elderly in her community. Also, pray for God to work through her Bible and English classes with Albanian and Roma students.

Monday, January 23

Continue to pray for workers ministering to the thousands affected by last October's earthquake in eastern Turkey. Pray that many hearts will turn to the Lord through this tragedy.

Tuesday, January 24

Over 500,000 Kurds live in Germany and the vast majority of them have never heard the gospel in a way they can understand! Pray for spiritual breakthroughs as workers share Christ with them.

Wednesday, January 25

Lift up the Iranian immigrants who attend a Friday night fellowship—many are new believers or are seeking the truth. Pray for those who are considering baptism as they count the cost of taking this step of obedience in a Muslim culture.

Thursday, January 26

Pray that God will establish a thriving church in a new area of Albania! Intercede for workers who've begun monthly Bible studies there, and ask God to bless and work as they share His word with women and young professionals.

Friday, January 27

Ask God to provide additional members for a short-term team that will be teaching English in Iraq. Also, ask God to prepare the hearts of their students, and soften them to the gospel.

Saturday, January 28

Praise God that workers in Turkey have begun meeting with national brethren for weekly worship. Pray that this group will grow in numbers and in maturity.

Sunday, January 29

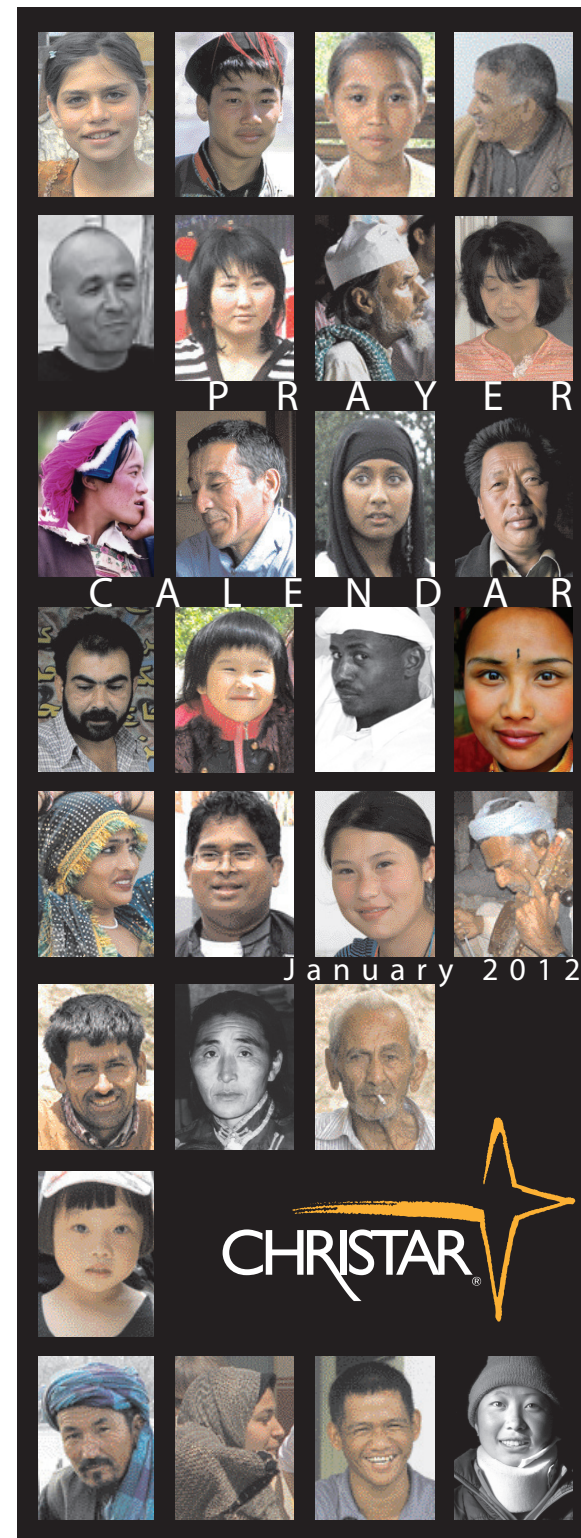

Rejoice with us: a long-term friend of our workers in Turkey recently announced that he had put his faith in Christ! Shortly after this, he was able to share his testimony with others. Pray for protection, boldness and spiritual growth.

Monday, January 30

Praise God for the many opportunities that one couple has had to share the gospel in Turkey. Especially intercede for the salvation of those who recently attended church with them and are pondering the truth.

Tuesday, January 31

Pray today for a 3-year-old Roma orphan girl in Albania whom workers are assisting. Ask God to provide a safe and loving home for her.
