

CALL TO PRAYER

May 2022

Sunday, May 1

Praise God for providing a new meeting place for a church plant of South Asian believers in the Netherlands.

Monday, May 2

Lift up Muslims as they celebrate Eid al-Fitr, which marks the end of Ramadan. Pray for opportunities for workers to share truth with Muslim friends during this time of spiritual focus and celebration.

Tuesday, May 3

Praise God for a maturing church in North Africa! Pray this fellowship will become a catalyst of Christ-honoring transformation in its community.

Wednesday, May 4

Ask the Lord to provide the remaining needed financial support for short-term workers planning to serve this summer.

Thursday, May 5

On the National Day of Prayer, ask God to give wisdom to the leaders of the United States. Pray they will make decisions that will allow more least-reached* people to hear the gospel.

Friday, May 6

Today many Buddhists commemorate the birth, enlightenment and death of the Buddha. Pray many will find true and everlasting life in Christ.

Saturday, May 7

Praise the Lord for churches in the U.S. that are partnering with Christar workers to help refugees resettle in their communities. Pray these refugees will experience God's love through the care of His people.

Sunday, May 8

On Mother's Day, ask God to draw mothers in least-reached communities to Himself and use them to lead their children to faith in Him.

Monday, May 9

Lift up workers involved in translating the Bible into a South Asian language, and pray that speakers of this language will be eager to read God's Word.

Tuesday, May 10

Workers serving among Muslims in the Far East praise God for an unexpected opportunity to reach out to junior high students. Pray they will be able to continue to share biblical truth with these young people.

Wednesday, May 11

Ask God to use social media outreach in France to connect workers to North Africans who are searching for truth.

Thursday, May 12

Praise God for using a worker in the U.S. to disciple Persian believers in several countries. Ask the Lord to continue to work through him to help build the Persian Church around the world.

Friday, May 13

Pray for courage for individuals in South Asia who are considering following Christ but concerned about opposition from their families.

Saturday, May 14

Ask God to raise up believers to fill numerous roles at a school in Albania that provides education for workers' children in time for the 2022/23 school year.

Sunday, May 15

Praise God with workers serving among a Central Asian people group for using a new believer to lead four others to Christ! Pray for continued boldness as he shares the truth in a culture deeply opposed to Christianity.

Monday, May 16

Lift up those participating in a 10-day tour in the Middle East that will include stops in cities with no known believers. As they see the need firsthand, pray they will gain a heart for the least-reached.

Tuesday, May 17

Pray that least-reached students who attend English classes taught by workers in the U.S. will embrace the biblical truth they hear.

Wednesday, May 18

Praise God for giving workers around the world opportunities to talk about spiritual matters with their Muslim friends during the month of Ramadan. Pray that these conversations would continue.

Thursday, May 19

Pray for three interns who will be serving in Spain this summer. Ask God to use them as they assist with ministry within the migrant community.

Friday, May 20

Praise the Lord for providing a gifted language helper to assist workers in the Middle East. Pray they will have opportunities to share biblical truth as they practice what they're learning.

Saturday, May 21

Pray for wisdom for workers in Canada as they seek to disciple Kurdish believers, equipping them to minister to others.

Sunday, May 22

Lift up a short-term team that's preparing to serve in a least-reached Deaf community in the Middle East next month. Ask God to work through them as they partner with a local church.

Monday, May 23

Pray that those who received copies of Scripture and Christian literature during a recent outreach in a Persian community will read these materials, and ask for wisdom for workers in following up with those who expressed interest in the gospel.

Tuesday, May 24

Lift up the short-term workers participating in pre-field training this week. Ask God to use this time to prepare them to serve alongside long-term workers in least-reached communities.

Wednesday, May 25

Pray that churches that recently commissioned new Christar workers will have joy in their role in the Great Commission as well as wisdom as they stand behind those they have sent.

Thursday, May 26

Ask God to enable workers who recently arrived in Southeast Asia to build strong connections in their community.

Friday, May 27

Pray for workers in numerous least-reached communities as they prepare for summer vacation Bible school outreaches. Ask God to use these programs to draw children and their families to Him.

Saturday, May 28

Join workers serving among Afghans in asking God to bring more local partners to assist them in ministry.

Sunday, May 29

Pray for least-reached college students who were introduced to the gospel during the spring semester. Ask that they will remember the good news they heard and seek out Christians in their towns.

Monday, May 30

As we remember those who've given their lives to defend our nation's freedom, pray that many least-reached people will come to know and trust in the life-giving sacrifice of our Savior.

Tuesday, May 31

Lift up Christar Mobilization Center U.S. (CMCUS) staff as they prepare for two training programs to be held next month. Pray these events will effectively equip new mid- and long-term workers.

*Least-reached: those without access to a church that preaches the gospel in their language and in a culturally relevant way
