

CALL TO PRAYER

March 2023

Wednesday, March 1

Rejoice that two new workers are heading to Japan this month! Pray for grace for each one in this time of transition.

Thursday, March 2

Praise God for a growing partnership among workers with numerous organizations seeking to reach the Roma. Ask the Lord to give wisdom to all involved and to use their combined efforts to build His Church among this people group.

Friday, March 3

As refugees in Spain receive practical assistance from Christar workers and their local partners, pray that many will be eager to hear the good news.

Saturday, March 4

Ask God to provide a place to meet for a growing church in the Middle East.

Sunday, March 5

Praise the Lord for the people of about a dozen nationalities who have recently heard the gospel through Beacon Community Center in France. Pray for growing relationships with each one and ongoing opportunities to share the hope of Christ.

Monday, March 6

Pray for wisdom for Christar workers and others working on a revised translation of the Bible into a South Asian language.

Tuesday, March 7

Tomorrow Muslims observe the "Night of Forgiveness," a time when many pray and fast in hope of receiving forgiveness for their sins. Pray that many will come to know the One who died so they could be blameless in God's sight.

Wednesday, March 8

Today, many Hindus celebrate Holi, the joyous festival of colors that marks the coming of spring. Pray that many will find the joy that comes from knowing Christ.

Thursday, March 9

Ask God to provide all needed faculty at a school in Albania that meets the educational needs of families serving cross culturally.

Friday, March 10

Pray that the American Sign Language translation of Through God's Eyes, a video course completed in partnership with Deaf Millennial Project, will give many Deaf believers a deeper understanding of God's heart for the nations.

Saturday, March 11

Ask God to bring more people who are open to the gospel to weekly outreaches run by workers serving among the Japanese in the United States.

Sunday, March 12

Lift up the many college students interacting with Christar mobilizers during numerous campus visits this spring. Pray that each one would be encouraged to be personally involved in ministry among the least-reached.*

Monday, March 13

Lift up the workers on home assignment who are participating in RENEW this week. Pray that this debriefing retreat will refresh, encourage and equip each one for continued ministry.

Tuesday, March 14

Pray for strength and courage for believers in Japan who face persecution from their families for their faith in Christ.

Wednesday, March 15

Join workers in Central Asia in praying that local believers will stand firm in their faith in a place where cultural norms starkly oppose biblical principles.

Thursday, March 16

Pray for continued opportunities for workers in South Asia to build relationships and share biblical truth as they establish a business in their community.

Friday, March 17

Ask the Lord to provide 100 daily prayer partners for each of the new workers preparing to leave for the field.

Saturday, March 18

Lift up the many people in the Middle East who were recently given portions of Scripture. Pray they will read what they received, and ask God to work in their hearts through His Word.

Sunday, March 19

Pray for grace and mental flexibility for workers studying difficult languages so that they will be able to clearly communicate the gospel in least-reached communities.

Monday, March 20

Ask God to continue to bring people who are open to talking about spiritual things to a professional development center run by workers in the Middle East.

Tuesday, March 21

The celebration of Persian New Year, known as Nowruz (“new day”), begins today in many communities. Pray that many Persians will find new life in Christ.

Wednesday, March 22

Ramadan, the Muslim month of fasting, begins today. This fasting is one of the Five Pillars of Islam and is considered one of the highest forms of Islamic worship. As Muslims around the world experience physical hunger, pray that they’ll hunger for the hope found in Christ.

Thursday, March 23

Pray for short-term workers completing an internship in North Africa, asking God to work through them and guide them regarding how He would have them serve in the future.

Friday, March 24

Lift up a church of Iranian believers in South America, asking that its members will grow strong in their faith and be unified.

Saturday, March 25

Pray for comfort and peace for the family members and friends of workers who recently left for the field.

Sunday, March 26

Ask God to prepare the hearts of the least-reached people around the world who will encounter the gospel for the first time through Easter outreaches over the next two weeks.

Monday, March 27

Lift up a team of students planning to serve short term in Albania in April and May. Ask God to prepare them to reflect Him well throughout this trip.

Tuesday, March 28

Pray that Persian believers who've been disciplined by Christar workers will disciple others from their communities who trust in Christ.

Wednesday, March 29

Ask for courage for women in South Asia who face opposition and abuse for their faith in Jesus.

Thursday, March 30

Praise God for Central Asian believers who are boldly teaching biblical truth to others. Ask Him to work through them to build His Church in this least-reached region.

Friday, March 31

As Ramadan continues, ask God to give workers in Muslim communities abundant opportunities to share about His grace.

*Least-reached: those without access to a church that preaches the gospel in their language and in a culturally relevant way
