

CALL TO PRAYER

August 2022

Monday, August 1

Lift up the 13 individuals in the Middle East who recently accepted New Testaments from Christar workers. Pray that each one will read the books they received, and ask God to work through His living and active Word.

Tuesday, August 2

Ask God to meet the needs of the many churches and individuals who partner with Christar workers and projects through their sacrificial giving.

Wednesday, August 3

Join workers in the Far East in praying for boldness for individuals who are the only believers in their villages.

Thursday, August 4

Lift up the refugees from numerous nations who've learned about Jesus' "I am" statements during Thursday evening outreaches in the United Kingdom. Pray they will believe that Christ is the source of true life.

Friday, August 5

Praise God for progress in the construction of the Barnabas Building, where workers in South Asia plan to host worship gatherings as well as ESL classes and practical training.

Saturday, August 6

Pray for wisdom and grace for workers dealing with ongoing medical issues. Ask that the way they respond to these challenges would be a testimony to others.

Sunday, August 7

Praise God for providing a short-term ministry coordinator to serve in the Christar Mobilization Center U.S. (CMCUS). Ask God to use her work to help many believers get a taste of life and service among the least-reached.*

Monday, August 8

Join workers serving in North America in asking God to bring more Japanese individuals and families who are open to the gospel to a local church.

Tuesday, August 9

Lift up workers serving as teachers at schools that meet the educational needs of families serving cross culturally, asking God to give wisdom as they prepare for the coming academic year.

Wednesday, August 10

Ask God to provide needed visas for workers preparing to return to the field.

Thursday, August 11

Today is the Hindu Festival of Raksha Bandhan, which celebrates the bond between brothers and sisters. Pray that more Hindus will become brothers and sisters in Christ.

Friday, August 12

Today many in the Far East observe the Hungry Ghost Festival by seeking to appease spirits and honor ancestors. Ask God to give many a hunger for Him!

Saturday, August 13

Over the next few days, many Japanese will honor their ancestors during the festival of Obon. Pray that believers will stand strong when faced with pressure to participate in idol worship.

Sunday, August 14

Ask God to raise up more believers to share the gospel among Muslims in France.

Monday, August 15

Pray that teams of workers in the Philippines will build good relationships in communities that don't yet have access to the gospel.

Tuesday, August 16

Rejoice that a small group of believers in North Africa has begun meeting weekly for worship. Pray that each one will be encouraged as they experience fellowship in their home city for the first time.

Wednesday, August 17

Pray that refugees in the United States who interact with Christian workers through English classes will experience God's love and desire to know Him personally.

Thursday, August 18

Ask God to provide skilled believers with a passion for the least-reached to fill open positions in the CMCUS.

Friday, August 19

On World Humanitarian Day, pray for wisdom for workers seeking to meet both physical and spiritual needs in least-reached communities.

Saturday, August 20

Ask the Lord to guide members of a short-term team that served in Southeast Asia over the summer as they consider options for future ministry.

Sunday, August 21

Pray for wisdom and creativity for workers in the Far East seeking to build and train a multinational church-planting team that will minister among numerous least-reached people groups.

Monday, August 22

Lift up the CMCUS Mobilization team as they prepare for a busy fall season. Ask God to work through them to prompt many of His people to serve Him cross-culturally.

Tuesday, August 23

Pray for those who've recently interacted with long-term workers and interns through the Global English Project in the Middle East, asking God to water the seeds of the gospel that have been planted over the summer.

Wednesday, August 24

Praise God that a Wednesday worship gathering in South Asia has been growing. Pray this group of believers will continue to expand.

Thursday, August 25

Lift up new workers who recently arrived on several fields. Ask the Lord to give them grace as they adjust and to bring people into their lives who are open to the gospel.

Friday, August 26

Ask for ongoing wisdom as Christar seeks to effectively partner with other organizations to give the Deaf access to the good news.

Saturday, August 27

Pray for those who served short term in Spain over the summer, asking God to guide them about their next steps in ministry.

Sunday, August 28

Ask the Lord to give more believers in Canada a heart for their Muslim neighbors and to call some of them to assist Christar workers in ministry.

Monday, August 29

Pray for wisdom for a team of new workers planning to leave for Southeast Asia this fall as they adjust their ministry plans in light of obstacles on their journey to the field.

Tuesday, August 30

Lift up workers involved in intensive language study, asking God to give them flexible minds and encourage them with their growing ability to communicate with least-reached people.

Wednesday, August 31

Pray for the Afghan refugee teens who heard Bible stories from a Christar worker over the summer, asking that they will want to know more about Jesus.

*Least-reached: those without access to a church that preaches the gospel in their language and in a culturally relevant way
